Ray Orr Case Settled

Reliable sources tell fixcarver that the Town of Carver has paid out close to one hundred thousand dollars in the Ray Orr discrimination and retaliation case. The town lost this case after years of costly and unsuccessful litigation. The Settlement agreement has not been made public in spite of recent public records requests and the source of funding has yet to be identified. There was no discussion of a possible pay out at Town Meeting in spite of Town Officials being aware that payout was immanent. Stay tuned to fixcarver to discover the source of Slippery Ricks magically appearing money.

Congratulations to Senior Sergeant Ray Orr for standing up to the Town Retaliators.

Taxpayers aggrieved by the six figure loss of our tax dollars and the failure to produce public records should call 508-866-3400 and express their outrage.
